NetDirector Announces the Promotion of Darren Meiggs to Operations Manager

Tampa, FL — February 21, 2011 – NetDirector is pleased to announce the promotion of Darren Meiggs to Operations Manager. Starting as an integration analyst, Darren has been an invaluable resource to our clients over that past 3 years. This experience along with over 15 years' in both the software and information technology industries will assist Darren as he strives to keep customer satisfaction to a premium level.

As operations manager, Darren is responsible for enhancing the performance, productivity, and efficiency of the company's internal processes and infrastructure. In his role, Darren leads the NetDirector operations team in client support, new client implementations/add-ons, and new product design/delivery. Additionally, Darren manages NetDirector's enterprise IT infrastructure.

This promotion is well deserved, and we're proud of Darren in taking on this new and exciting role for NetDirector. Please join us in a sincere congratulation. If you would like to personally congratulate Darren, he can be reached at 813-345-4634 or darren@netdirector.biz.
